Corrections Report (Jim C.): It has been slow in getting new applications approved. Someone is on family leave and not processing volunteer applications. In addition, 2 applications were incomplete. Jim is working with a Deputy to move the applications along.

Treatment (Tracey H.): Still collecting literature catalogs to hand out at treatment facilities (Fort and Cambridge).

Archives Report (Lisa S.): No changes.

Grapevine Report (Catherine D.): We've had 3 new subscriptions for a variety of District groups. The District is buying 2 new subscriptions for Jefferson County Jail.

DCM Report (Wendy A.):

The Fall Service Assembly is 9 am – 4 pm on October 16. Dona C will be going in Wendy's place because Wendy cannot get off of work. (There was a discussion of proposals for the Assembly.)

Old Business:

The District 11 Fall Workshop was discussed. Below are some notes/highlights from our discussion:

1. We discussed hospitality (coffee, water, food, etc)
2. Confirmed speakers are as follows: Jim C will MC the Workshop, Brian – Relapse Prevention, Dana and Lisa – Promises Panel, How It Works – Larry
3. We'll also be looking for additional speakers for the Workshop

New Business:

We discussed a correspondence letter from the UW Whitewater Wellness Fair being held on November 2. Catherine volunteered to participate in this event on our behalf. Jack noted that he volunteered for the event last year and it was cancelled. We decided not to participate in this event.

We closed the meeting with the Serenity Prayer.

Next Meeting:

The last Wednesday of the month: October 26, 2011
At: 5:30pm Moravian Church in Lake Mills, 301 College St.
