Welcome and Introductions

Secretary’s Report: Report approved.

Treasurer’s Report: Report reviewed and approved

Committee Reports:

Archives: Craig reminded groups to give him documents from meetings to be put in archives.

BTG: 4 women and 1 man connected. Due to the dissolution of area BTG, area corrections will contact district corrections.

CPC: Not present.

Corrections: Women needed for jail meetings in the Public Safety Bldg, Huber Center, Dane County jail and Thompson correctional facility. Chris is keeping in contact with people on jail list via e-mail. Per request Chris will check on Grapevine availability in jails.

PI: Trying to make up a speaker list that could be used when requests are made for speakers. Checking on availability of AA literature in local libraries and if some could be put in.

Special Needs: Special Needs meeting 10 am Saturdays at Monona Serenity Group needs support.

Treatment: Tom to be reimbursed for 75 directories. A request was made by Tom A. whom runs a meeting at McGovern for hard cover big books and 12 & 12’s, it was suggested the funds for these books come from treatment/corrections literature fund at MAICO. A meeting has been started at Mendota Mental Health Institute, 6:30 Mondays. Immunizations may be required.

Grapevine: Report submitted to secretary and distributed via e-mail. It is available upon request.

MAICO: MAICO is looking into making merchandise available for purchase online using pay pal. They are also looking into ways to better serve outlying districts.
