COMMITTEE REPORTS:

PI/CPC

George S. said he could be doing a lot of things..... but he's not. (grin)
He needs help with transportation to deliver schedules and literature.
Please ask at your groups if anyone would be of assistance.

Hotline

Dave B. absent.

Bridging the Gap

None

Grapevine

Lori M. says that the price of Grapevine is going up. 50 back issues did cost $26.00 and now they will be $36.00. For those who subscribe yearly to the Grapevine the cost will go from $10.00 to $15.00. Non subscribers will go from $15.00 to $20.00 per year. You can now download and hear the stories from the Grapevine at their website. Lori has a box of 50 back issues; feel free to take and distribute where needed.

Corrections

Bill J. connected with the night supervisor at the jail about coordinating the meetings. Fern S. stated that she was provided with a room for the meeting on Tuesday nights. Bill J. states that the GSO sent him a copy of the Grapevine with no staples in it for those at the jail.

Treatment

Jim B. absent. Sue M. relayed the message from Jim B. that all is going well at detox. He believes he may have someone for Wednesday and Thursday nights.

Archives

Bridget A. absent. Bill J. states that Bridgett says she no longer be able to fill the position and will drop off materials at Sue M. and Jim B.'s home.

MAICO Rep.

Jerry H. said MAICO will be having a Big Book study January 12-13, 2007 in Madison. Fliers for the Picnic at Peace Park Pavilion have been updated with speaker times, request to bring chairs and change burgers to barbecue. Jerry H. wants to ask the 12x12 club if it would be ok to make coffee at the club and then bring urns to the picnic. MAICO says they currently spend about $10.00 every day for an answering service to answer their phones outside of their standard office hours and on weekends to make sure the "Still Suffering Alcoholic" receives a live person every time they dial the MAICO number. They are initiating a new program where AA Groups or individual AA Members can specifically "sponsor" the answering service for one day through a $10 donation You may choose to do this once a year, a quarter, or a month. They would be happy to recognize you/your group in their newsletter for doing so. If you have questions or would like to sponsor call Diane at 222-8969.

Old Business

None

New Business

Joe H. states that the Sunday 8:00 a.m. Grapevine meeting will be held at the river and Kevin will be speaking. They are planning on having a cookout (grilled breakfast?) and bring your fishing pole. See Joe for more details if you would like to attend.

Meeting closed with the Lord's Prayer.
