

MAICO OFFICE MANAGER'S REPORT

November 11, 2008

Volunteers:

Monday/Tuesdays/Saturdays: Sue C. has done a great job as volunteer coordinator, there have been volunteers covering Mon & Tues nights & Saturdays. Sue also helped to have volunteers to help pack & unpack for the 3 conferences that MAICO did in October, the New Glarus mini-conf, Dist. 8 & 30 Mini-Conf & Youngtimers/Oldtimers.

1. MAICO Reading Room – Mondays at 2:00pm meeting. Didn't have anyone show up last week, two guys showed up 11/10/08, no one else so they listened to tapes. Hoping that little by little meeting will gain support.
2. Dist 8/30 Mini-Conference, October 25th in Janesville – Thanks Nancy & Ken G. for getting merchandise to the conference, selling at conference and getting merchandise back to MAICO. MAICO sold $990.19 in merchandise.
3. Youngtimers/Oldtimers workshop – I think there were approximately 65-70 people. Registration forms were misplaced. It seemed like a good turnout. Vicki's spaghetti lunch was terrific, thanks Vic. Thanks to all the speakers. MAICO sold $610.38 in merchandise which is fantastic. Profit over loss without merchandise sales included were profit of $122.43
4. MAICO Reps Breakfast – 41 people attended. Kavanaugh's Esquire Club charged us for people attending not what we had guaranteed for which was 50 so that was a savings for MAICO. Food was excellent, Sherm & Joanne did a great job speaking. Room was great too and so was service. Profit over loss of $261.00.
